

1:18-32

1. How does Paul link his writing in verse 18 to the previous verses?
2. If God has been revealed since creation, what do these verses (19-21) tell us about why Jesus needed to come into the world?
3. What is the implication of these verses for someone who has never heard the gospel?
4. If God has been revealed since the time of the creation, where does that leave us in terms of needing to share the gospel?
5. Thinking about vv. 19-32 - why do you think Paul chooses the list of sins that he does to illustrate the point he is making?
6. What does Paul say is the root cause of the unrighteousness and ungodliness?
7. How do we set up idols today?
8. Any other application you will make to your life?

Romans 1:18-32

The link to what has gone before

What is God's wrath?

The truth revealed (v. 19-32)

What the world shows us about God

Why do we need the Gospel?

The consequences of suppressing the truth (v. 19-32)

What are my idols?

We all need the good news
