Reflection Questions

1. What are the two key privileges Paul gives that the Jews have? Why might he have highlighted these?
2. What does Paul say the role of the Jews should have been with respect to the Gentiles?
3. How does Paul “turn the tables” on his Jewish readers?
4. How can we “teach ourselves” and not fall into the pride Paul writes about here?
5. How does Paul say they have broken the law?
6. What do you think circumcision of the heart means?
7. What outward signs might people today rely on for their salvation, like some of the Jews relied on the circumcision?
8. What can we learn for our own evangelism and outreach from how Paul deals with the objections he addresses in 3:1-8?
