

Isaiah 2:1-5 Hope to the Nations

Context

Isaiah 1

Isaiah 6

Isaiah 2:2-3a - The presence and the truth of the Lord...

Isaiah 2:3b-4 - ... produce a reordered world and a new humanity

Isaiah 2:5 - "Let us walk"

Reflection Questions

1. How does this passage fit into Isaiah's overall message? Read Isaiah 1 and Isaiah 6.
2. What are the key ingredients of Isaiah's vision of the glorious future for Jerusalem?
3. What does the latter/last days mean in v. 22?
4. Who will come to the mountain of the Lord in v. 3?
5. What will they do when they get there?
6. What is striking about the description of the renewed order of the world in v. 4?
7. Why is the actual situation for Judah such a contrast (v. 5)?
8. Isaiah's prophecy should have brought hope to Judah. How would you describe your hope as a Christian?
