

Romans 7: 7-25:
The law is good - but it is not enough

Romans 7:7a “What then shall we say?”

Romans 7:7b-13 - The law is good...

Romans 7:14-25 - ... but it is not enough

Romans 7: 7-25:

The law is good - but it is not enough

1. How does Paul link these verses back to Romans 7:1-6
2. What does Paul say is good about the law in verses 7-13?
3. How might you use these verses to show a non-Christian that simply being “good” isn’t going to bring them into a relationship with Jesus?
4. Carefully read verses 14-25. Who do you think Paul is talking about in these verses?
5. As a Christian, why might you be tempted to look to the law and living a “good” life to try and become more like Jesus?
6. What do these verses teach us is the Biblical way to approach growing in our relationship with Jesus and continuing to bear fruit for him?